

Training for Application

September 21, 2018 - Ely, NV Bristlecone Convention Center, 150 W 6th St,

October 4, 2018 - Paradise Valley Community Center 50 S. Main (40 mi. No. of Winnemucca)

Trainers will be many of the authors:

Sherman Swanson, Brad Schultz, Patti Novak-Echenique, Kathryn Dyer, Gary McCuin, James Linebaugh, Barry Perryman, Paul Tueller, Rixey Jenkins, Betia Scherrer, Tara Vogel, Ryan Shane, Mark Freese, and Kelly McGowan

8:30 - Introduction

Tools for Objectives

Adaptive Management

Monitoring Methods, Short-Term

Monitoring Methods, Long-Term

Supplemental techniques and Information

Cooperative Permittee Monitoring

Appendix F Scales in Monitoring

Statistical Considerations

Application using Cooperative Permittee Monitoring Template (case study / inside & field work)

- Permittee Goals, needs, and Priorities

- Agency goals, needs and priorities

- Monitoring information available from the agency and Ranch

- The most important elements from documents that must be considered

- Elements that need to be updated?

- SMART objectives for the allotment or pasture

- Locations for key areas or landscape transects

- Key species and expected changes

- Long-term, effectiveness, monitoring needed

- Management strategies needing short-term, implementation monitoring

- Use of the information for adaptive management

Discussion integrating concepts from throughout the day (We plan to be done by 5:00)

The Handbook is at http://www.unce.unr.edu/publications/sp_2018_03.aspx

or contact Sherman Swanson at sswanson@cabnr.unr.edu for a PDF